Acorn Park - Weekly Roundup

Acorn Park Round Up

Good Afternoon Everyone!

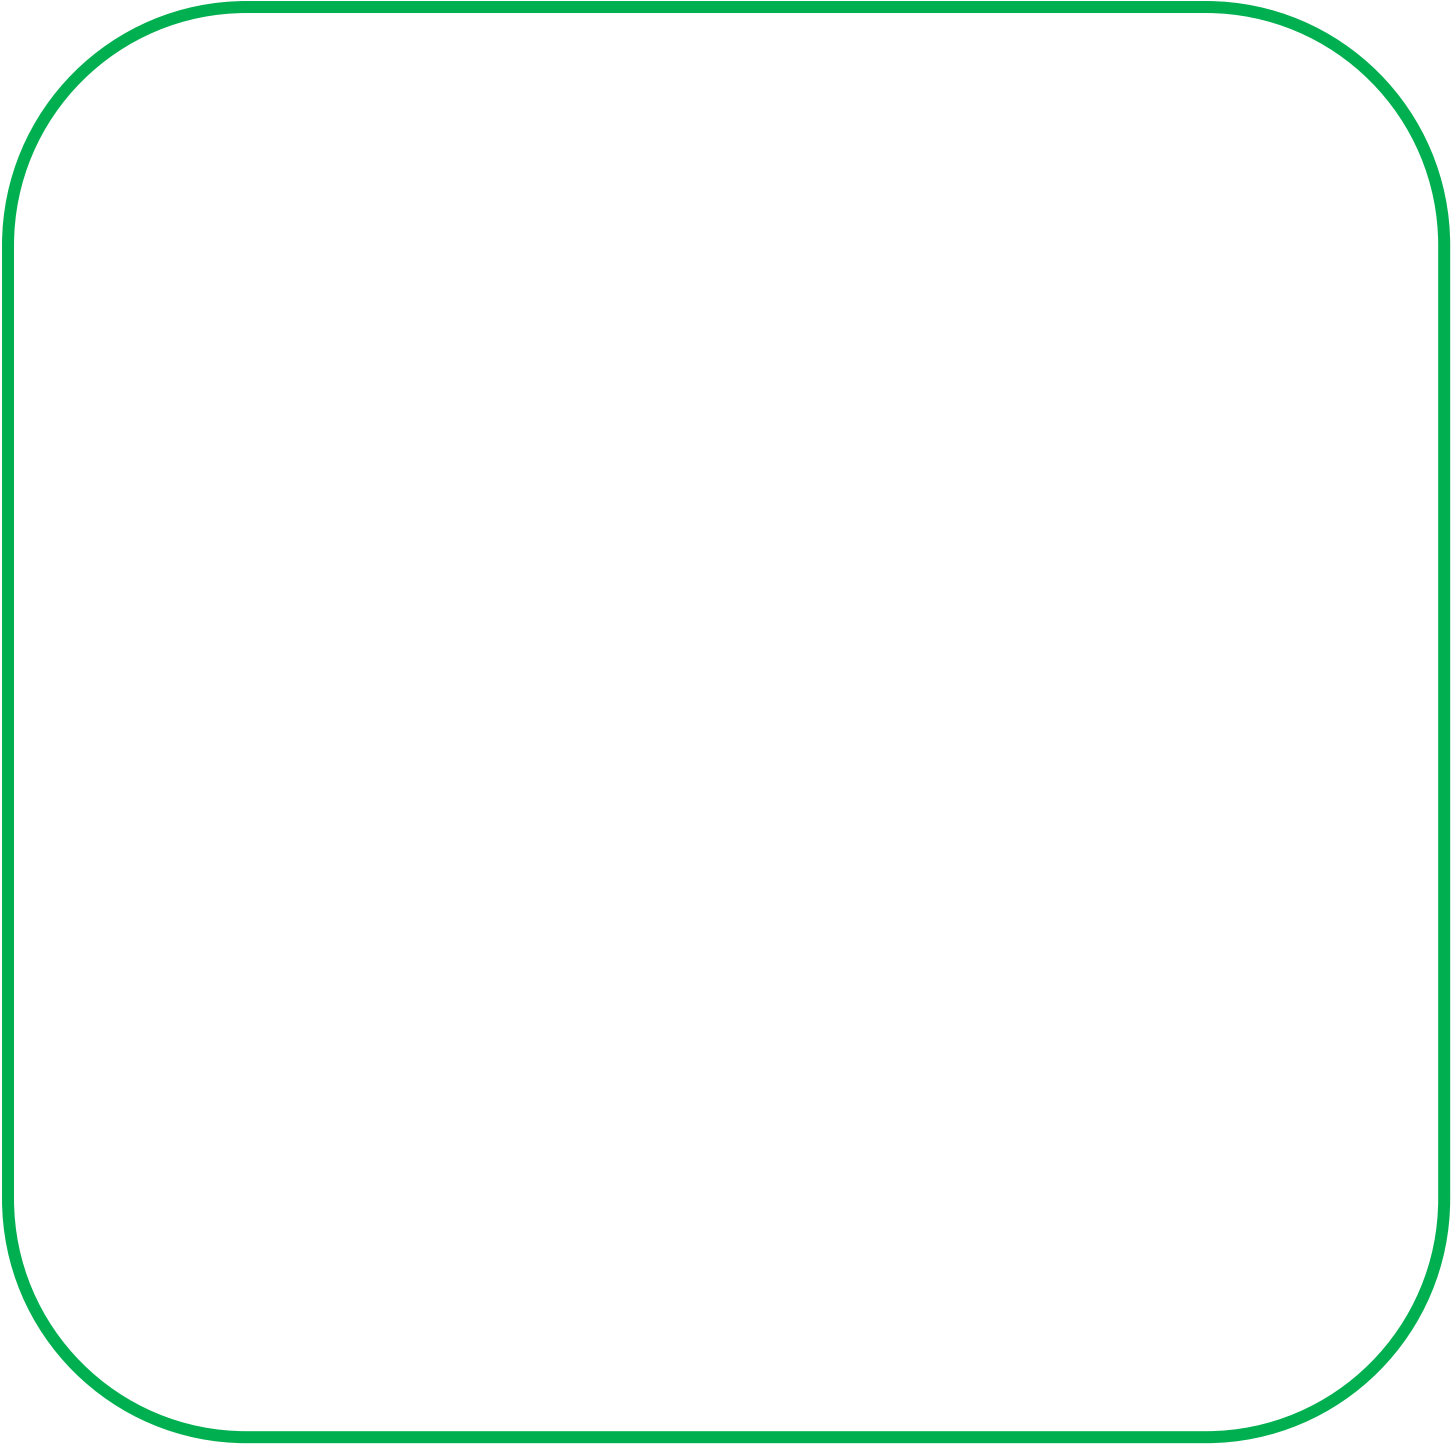

We've had an absolute blast these last two days. We would like to congratulate all our students for settling back in to the school routine brilliantly. Sadly all our lovely Christmas decorations have now been taken down, but the cheer is definitely still in the classrooms!

We would just like to clarify with regard to the wet (and potentially snowy?!) weather that any closures or changes to the school day will be posted to Dojo and/or the Norfolk School Closure website. If no updates have been posted to those sites then the assumption should be made that the school is open.

Please remember that all students should now have coats, wellies and other winter essentials at school or ensure they are brought in daily. Outdoor learning happens through almost all weather!

We are welcoming several new students and staff to school over the next two weeks and would like to wish them all the best in their Acorn Park journey.

Have a lovely weekend all!
