Acorn Park - Weekly Roundup

Good Afternoon Everyone! It's definitely getting colder out here in Banham, we are starting to see some ice and potentially snow next week. Please consider sending students in with hats, gloves and scarves where possible!

This week has been the first full week back and learning has picked back up to full speed. Semi-formal are learning about Space this term and have made some brilliant decorations for their classrooms, well done all!

Amber and Mark have been busy getting everyone involved in protecting animals and plants in the cold weather, thank you to everyone who has supported our outdoor educators.

Shakespeare will be hosting a hot chocolate morning and asking for donations for their trip to Amsterdam in the summer - more information to follow on this soon...

Student Stars;

Oliver in Ahlberg Class for putting his feet and hands in the swimming pool, when he was really afraid to go swimming or go near the water. Well done for starting overcome your anxieties Oliver!

Luca V in Kinney for being regulated throughout the week, for being resilient and staying in class even when he thought the lesson was challenging and for completing Reading Plus independently for the first time.

Ziggy S in Kerr for going on the class walk to Banham shop for the first time with support from Karen, one of the Kerr Teaching Assistants.

Jack and Mason for being amazing helpers in horticulture again this week, they're helping Mark fantastically.

Shamis, Leo, Noah and Taylor for beginning their transitions into their Acorn Park school journeys.

Ruby S for singing Happy Birthday to one of our lovely TA's Kayleigh and stopping to ask her name halfway through!

Staff Stars;

Kinney class team for being flexible and for supporting other classes with the same enthusiasm and professionalism as well as Kirstie A for commitment, resilience and support classes in Mozart building.

Rebecca D and Amy O'K for being fantastic supports across multiple classes this week.

Rosen class team for supporting each other fantastically through every challenge this week!

Rhys Carter for being super positive and consistent and bringing the fun to learning for Milne class.

Have a wonderful weekend all!
