Acorn Park - Weekly Roundup

Good afternoon everyone,

Another hot one this week! So starting with a super important reminder of sun cream, hats and water for next week please. It's forecast to be up to 35 degrees on Monday and Tuesday – wow!

Formal classes across school have been creating scenery for the upcoming Acorn Fest Snow White play – it's all very exciting!

You'll have seen from the event calendar that we celebrated Pride this afternoon. The focus was being proud to be me. We had music and dancing in the playground with lots of children and staff wearing clothing that expressed themselves, including lots of multicoloured items and rainbow flags. It's a genuine pleasure to see the children having such fun!

On Tuesday we had Sports day for the whole school. It was jam packed with activities and races and the children had such fun – especially when they beat staff!

Kinney class are putting on a bake sale on the 10th July in order to raise funds for the Trussell Trust. If any of you would like to donate some cakes to sell and/or some coins to buy some, it would be much appreciated!

Another reminder about Acorn Fest... Its now only 3 and a bit weeks away and will soon be here. Let's make sure that transport is super organised so all the children get home safely. Thanks to all of you that have completed the form already (you stars!). If you have yet to fill it in, please complete this form (only 2 minutes!) so we know your plans on attending -

Student stars

Care

Xander C – for showing real maturity and kindness when helping a younger peer make good decisions when out on the playground. Completely unprompted, he used humour and cunning to help keep his fellow student safe.

Violet B - for her caring nature, she has been sharing with peers and taking good care of Hazel the goat.

Strive

Tyler L - for working hard in his Provision session this week - even when it was difficult. This showed real tenacity and strength of character

Grow

Isaac O, Isaac He and Isaac Ha - for making great progress in their Desty Provision sessions this week.

Thrive

Rylee B - for putting in extra effort with all of his work this week

Elijah P - for finishing the second block of his Desty programme and demonstrating excellent recall of previous learning.

Hope you all have a lovely weekend

Adam 😊
