Acorn Park - Weekly Roundup

Good afternoon everyone!

We are really rocking and rolling through this term — and what lovely weather to end the week on!

Gentle Reminder:

Our young people need coats and wellies for outdoor activities (and just in general with this super unpredictable weather at the minute!).

Flu Vaccinations

Coming up this Thursday 25th September — please direct any questions to your child's teacher

This Week's Highlights

Hughes Class

Had their first day with all students in — amazing work children and parents alike! Those transitions can be tricky, and you've all done brilliantly!

Dahl Class

Had a wonderfully interactive week — especially with everyone helping out with the washing up! Teamwork makes the dream work!

Deary Class

Explored outdoor education, music, and art — everyone loved it! Photos attached!

Seuss & Kerr Classes

Visited Banham Zoo on Tuesday! The children enjoyed seeing the animals and spotting the GoGo Safari statues. So proud of how these two classes came together!

Shakespeare Class

Took a trip to the Globe Theatre in London to watch Twelfth Night — fantastic work everyone!

Fletcher Class

Shared some lovely photos — copying and creating melodies with xylophones in music, feeding chickens in animal care, and building a city in DT using construction toys. Brilliant teamwork!

 Attendance Update

 Screenshot posted!

As you know, the more children attend school, the more opportunities they have to be successful. We understand it can be tricky at times, but let's keep a positive mindset around attendance!

 Student Stars of the Week

 Care

 Louie S – In PSHE, when asked about friendships, he independently stood up and hugged all his classmates to show his friendship.

 Strive

 Finley F – For tackling new phonics sounds and trying hard to say them.

 Alfie N – For engaging well in all work this week and trying really hard even when it was difficult.

 Grow

 Toby B – For talking about how he's feeling and using regulation strategies when needed.

  Charlie S – For communicating with sign and using his voice to say staff names.

 Thrive

 Oliver SP – For learning and implementing adjectives.

 Wiktor T – For taking new routines in his stride.

Wishing you all a lovely weekend!
