🌿 Good afternoon everyone!

Sorry for making you wait until today!

But - What a great week we've had here at Acorn Park. With a special event being M&M productions visiting us and putting on the panto!

Just a little note on the weather, we are starting to get some cooler and wetter days – so please remember to pack weather appropriate clothing where possible. Maybe including a change of clothes if your child likes to go and play in the water! 🐼

💎 This Week's Highlights 💎

💬 Tolkien Class took part in some debating during tutor time which they did in style! They were able to listen and give thoughts on important topics, how amazing!

🏊 Bryan Class achieved something truly special — their very first swimming trip together! Every pupil showed incredible courage, resilience and enthusiasm as they travelled on the school minibus, coped with changing, and explored the pool in their own way.

📁 Lewis Class created Asia fact files for their Geography research and came joint 3rd with YR8 in the Eco greens week

🎭 Panto time!

On Thursday, we welcomed M&M Productions into school for their performance of Beauty and the Beast. This was a whole-school event, and it was simply joyful to see our children fully immersed in the show. Many joined in with the signing and dancing alongside the actors, clearly enjoying every moment.

Student Stars of the Week

Care

Joshiah I showed confidence and kindness on our first class swimming trip, swimming brilliantly and supporting the routines. Later, he played happily with pupils from other classes, a wonderful example of care.

Archie M for helping his peer with the particularly tricky words when reading and being a source of support and encouragement.

Strive

Charlie R worked so hard on our first class swimming trip. He travelled, changed, and joined the shallow water with real effort and maturity. Fantastic determination!

Eli H for reading an entire page of Lord of The Flies in English.

Grow

Lily-May B grew in confidence during our first swimming session as a class. She stayed calm through all the new routines and enjoyed exploring the shallow water. Brilliant progress!

Thrive

Matvejs S was incredibly brave on his first ever swimming trip. He stood in the water, splashed on the ramp, and coped beautifully with a totally new experience. A huge step in confidence!

Hope you've had a great weekend!
