🌿 Good afternoon, everyone!

It was lovely to see so many of you this afternoon, in the drizzle! Thankyou to everyone who joined us for our Easter event, it was a great day and it was so lovely to see so many of you enjoying the activities.

🎉 This Week's Highlights 🎉

🚗 🐘 Carle & Donaldson went to Banham Zoo this week, the pupils were all amazing and we had a really lovely time and the weather held out, only a small shower of rain when we were inside eating lunch!

All were brilliant on the journey, and we loved seeing all the animals as well as a lovely play on the park in the sunshine.

🐘 Milne class went to London on Thursday and visited the Natural History Museum and the Science Museum, this was their first big trip, navigating the underground and tube system.

✈️ Lewis, King, Kinney, Orwell, Golding & Tolkien visited Duxford imperial war museum this week on a coach, they explored the hangars and aircrafts.

Charlie S & Max S for visiting City college and coping with the whole morning, interacting with staff, getting their lunch in a very busy café. They were so grown up and ready for the challenge!

Jake S for his excellent communication skills, requesting peers and staff to bounce on the trampoline with him.

Lily-May B has shown great maturity as she grows into a young lady, coping with changes calmly and confidently.
