🌿 Good afternoon, everyone!

It's been a wet one! But looking warmer again next week, so fingers crossed!

The year 11s and above are now in full flow of their exams. They've all been fantastic so far and coped incredibly well with the demands and stress that come with examinations – we are all so proud of you and you're doing amazing.

💎 This Week's Highlights 💎

- ✂️ Dixon class 'flew' to Venice, to explore the similarities and differences between Venice and home. We explored some palaces, a cafe and even got a ride on a gondola.
- 🍰 Due to the weather this week, Fletcher class decided to pop along to our student run café, they all ordered themselves a sweet treat and sat and ate them together.
- 🐏 Donaldson class met 12 day old lambs! All pupils were fantastic, gently saying hello and stroking them.

To follow this, we had sensory exploration of cotton wool and followed instructions for sheep related crafts
